I'm planning to attend the CARR and Energy Extraction briefings this morning. Would you two be available for a check in call at 12 noon to just go over last minute questions on the PowerPoint? Since Sara will be on the phone, I'm assuming I will be presenting, unless Greg, you want to do it. The tag team approach always helps to keep things interesting, though. For example, if I present, Greg, if you could talk about specific cases, and Sara, if you wanted to go over the analysis of the state assists? One of you could also discuss the challenges regions face with the repeal of OIAI. We could also get specific Regions to weigh in and highlight particular experiences they have had.

I'll send a scheduler for 12 (sorry to mess up lunch!). Let me know if that works.

Thanks!
